Winston Wachter Fine Art presents "Calhau," an exhibition of sculptural works and works on paper by Julie Speidel from January 11, 2017 through February 18, 2016.

This exhibition showcases Julie Speidel's large and small-scale works which appear timeless and at times, exotic. The artist is fascinated by glacial geology, ancient megaliths, and by sites in Ireland, Turkey, and China, which reflects in her works. While her glacial rocks pay homage to Pacific Northwest geological forces, her totemic sculptures carry an air of mystery and spiritualism.
