KIM KEEVER

Painting Dreams Under Water

September 10 – October 29, 2022

Winston Wächter Fine Art

Winston Wächter Fine Art is pleased to announce our second solo exhibition with Kim Keever, Painting Dreams Under Water, highlighting recent images in his longstanding abstract photography series. Keever captures ephemeral formations of paint submerged in a studio aquarium, where the alchemical, scientific process determines the direction of a composition. Cataloging and curating through the weeds to find his own decisive moment, Keever captures radically vibrant split seconds of suspended motion. Otherworldly, painterly gestures rupture through the fog of his chosen pigments, blurring the contours of landscape painting and pure abstraction. Keever revels in the randomness of his process, illuminating the profound beauty of chance in a controlled environment.

Kim Keever's work is included in numerous collections, including the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York; Museum of Modern Art, New York, Brooklyn Museum of Art, Brooklyn, Hirshhorn Museum, Washington, DC. His work has been featured in many publications including the New York Times, the Wall Street Journal, and Wired Magazine.
