

KIM KEEVER: NEW ABSTRACT SELECTIONS

August 8th – September 9th

In his ongoing series Abstract, Kim Keever photographs dispersed paint seeping and emulsifying in large tanks of water. Bright, swirling pigments radiate with the effortless movement of a curtain in the wind, conveying abstract gestures that oftentimes conjure cloudscapes and mysterious flora in the same formation. In a new addition to the series, Keever experiments with lighting to incorporate darker backgrounds that more vividly highlight the central dance of fluid movement. The expressive contrast enriches these snapshots of constantly flowing motion, magnifying the sculptural depth of amorphous paint suspended around stark nothingness.

Kim Keever's work is included in numerous collections, including the Louvre Museum, Paris, France; Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York; Museum of Modern Art, New York; Brooklyn Museum of Art, Brooklyn; Hirshhorn Museum, Washington, DC, Mint Museum, Charlotte, NC; Chrysler Museum, Norfolk, VA, and Nerman Museum of Contemporary Art, Kansas City, KS. His work has been featured in many publications including the New York Times, the Wall Street Journal, and Wired Magazine.
