AARON LEITZ HORIZONS

Winston Wächter Fine Art Seattle is pleased to present the Horizons series from Seattle-based photographer Aaron Leitz

Inspired by the color field works of painters like Barnett Newman and Mark Rothko, Aaron Leitz's Horizons series explores the abstract interpretation of the traditional landscape photograph. Precise timed movements of the camera distill scenes of both the natural and built environment into layers of light and color. As the static landscape blends with itself, disparate elements fuse and fade, creating new forms, revealing new colors. The effect is created naturally, in-camera during the making of the photographs.
